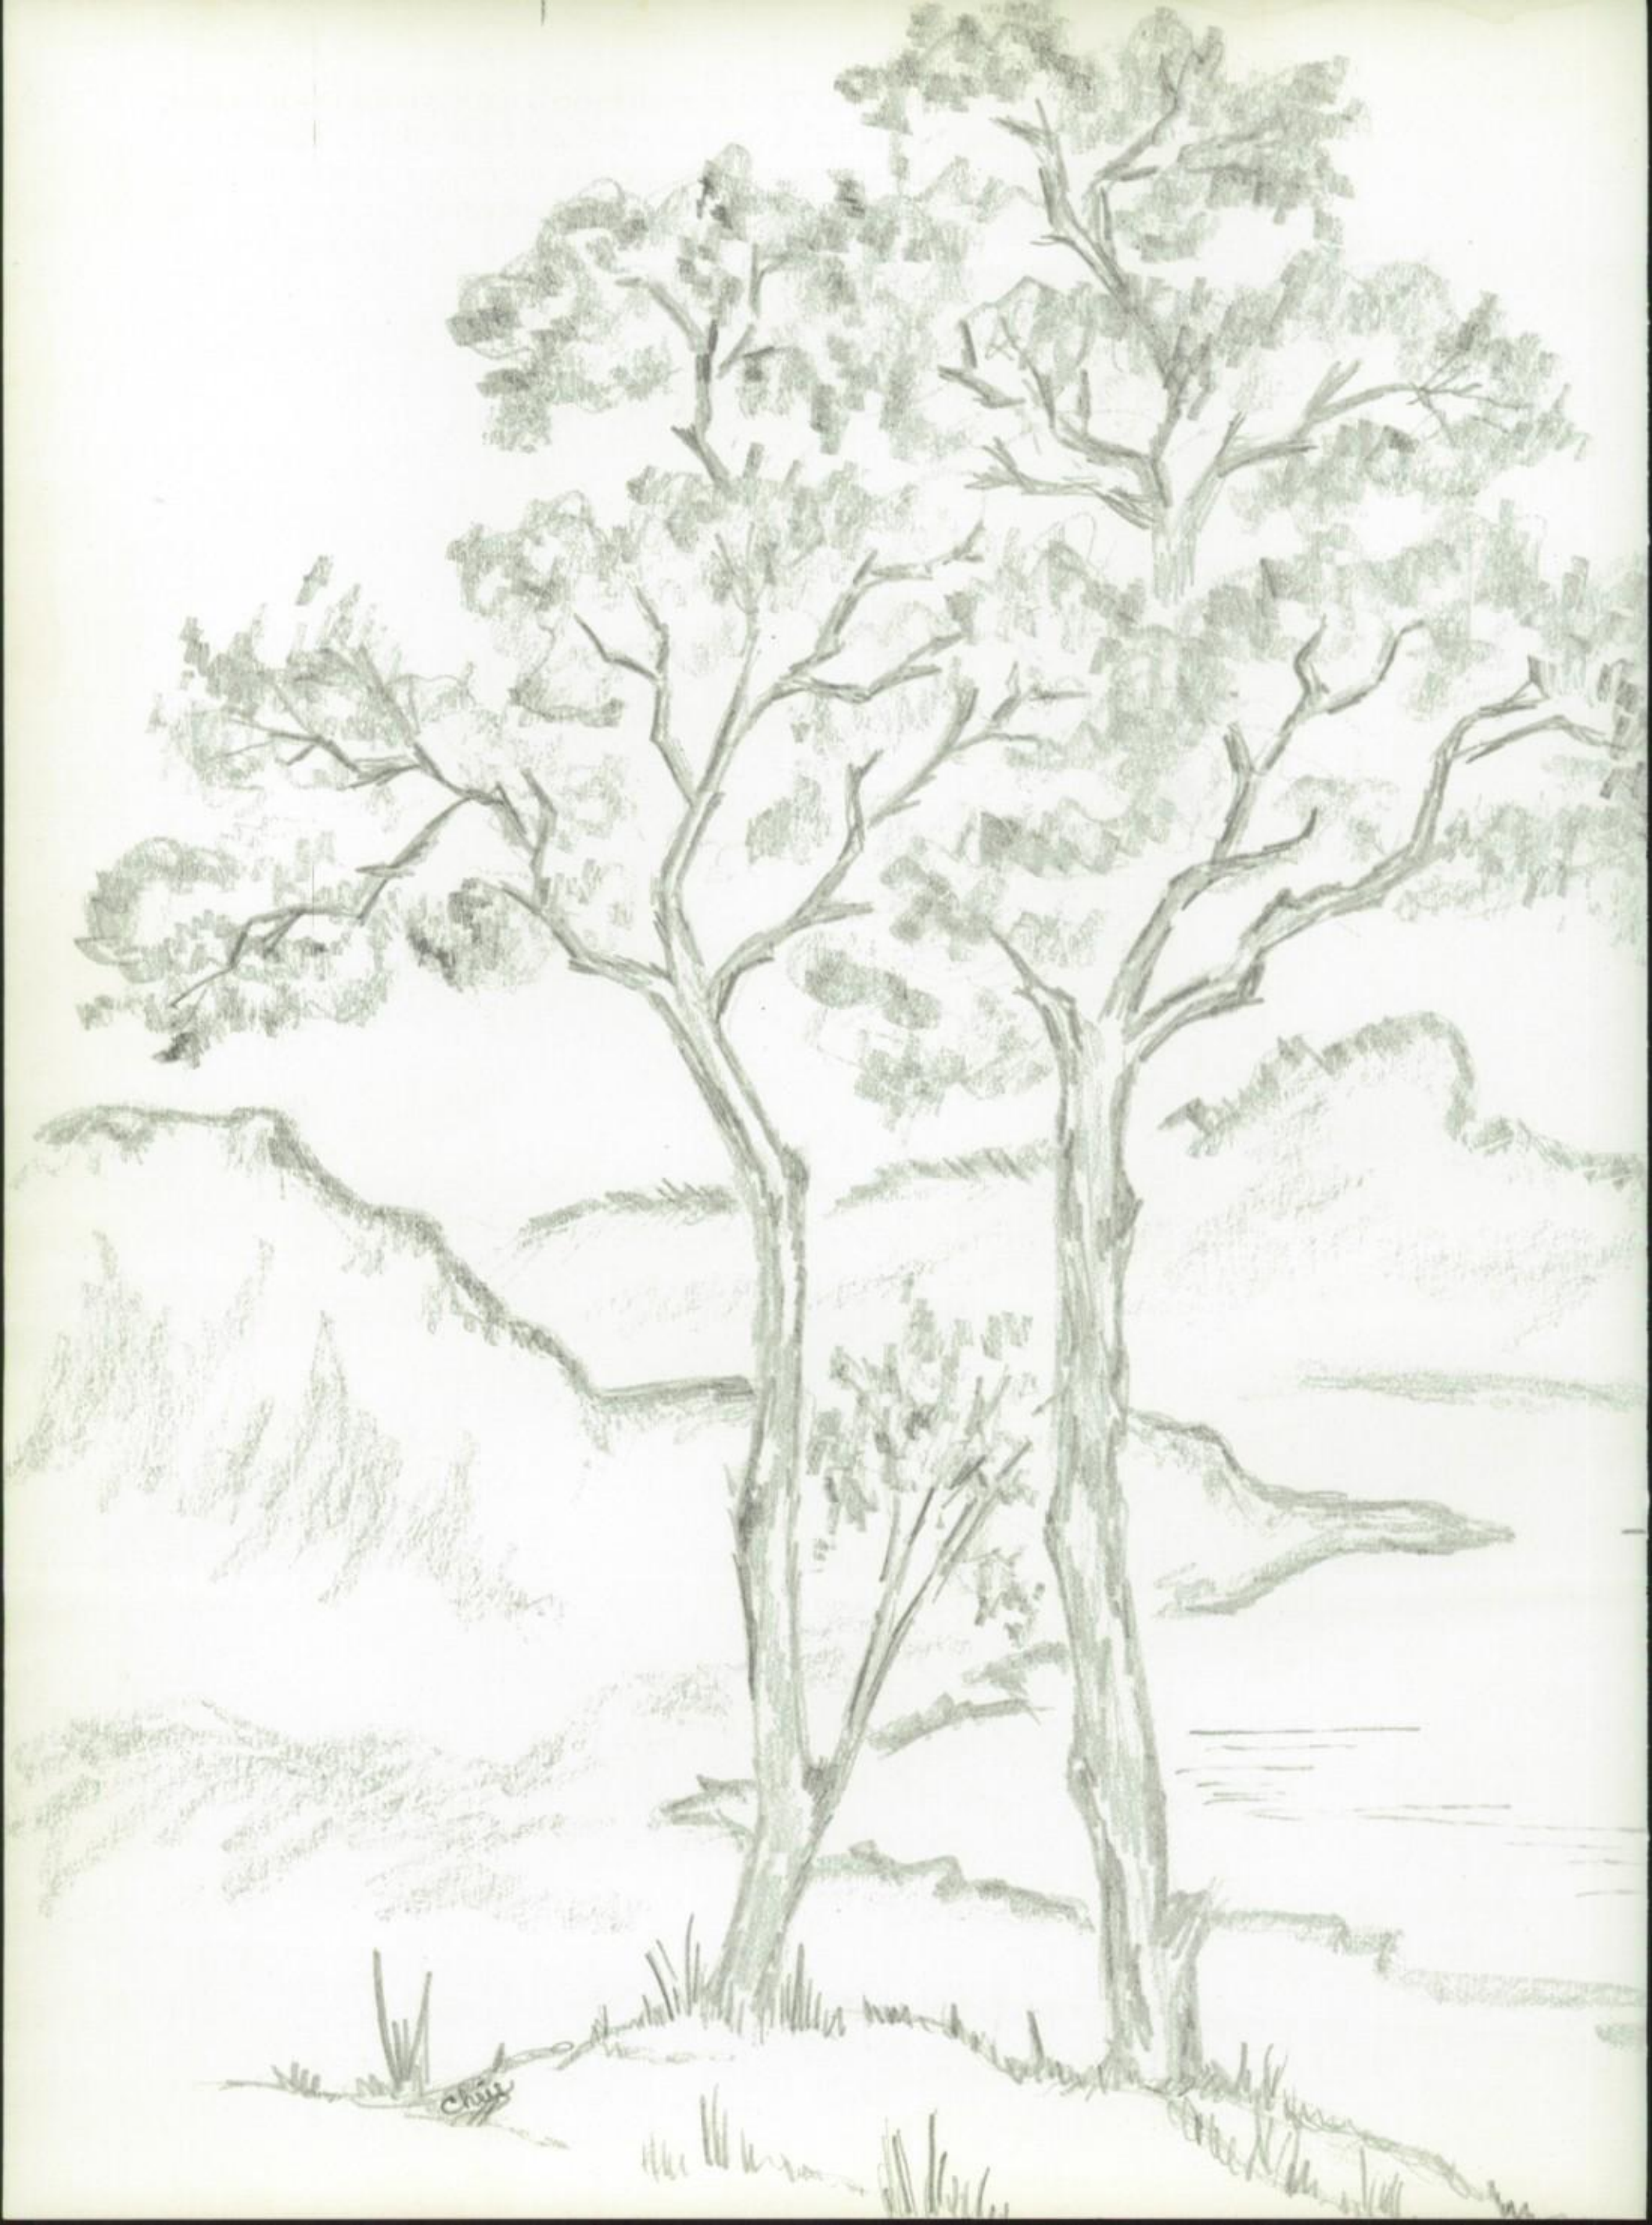
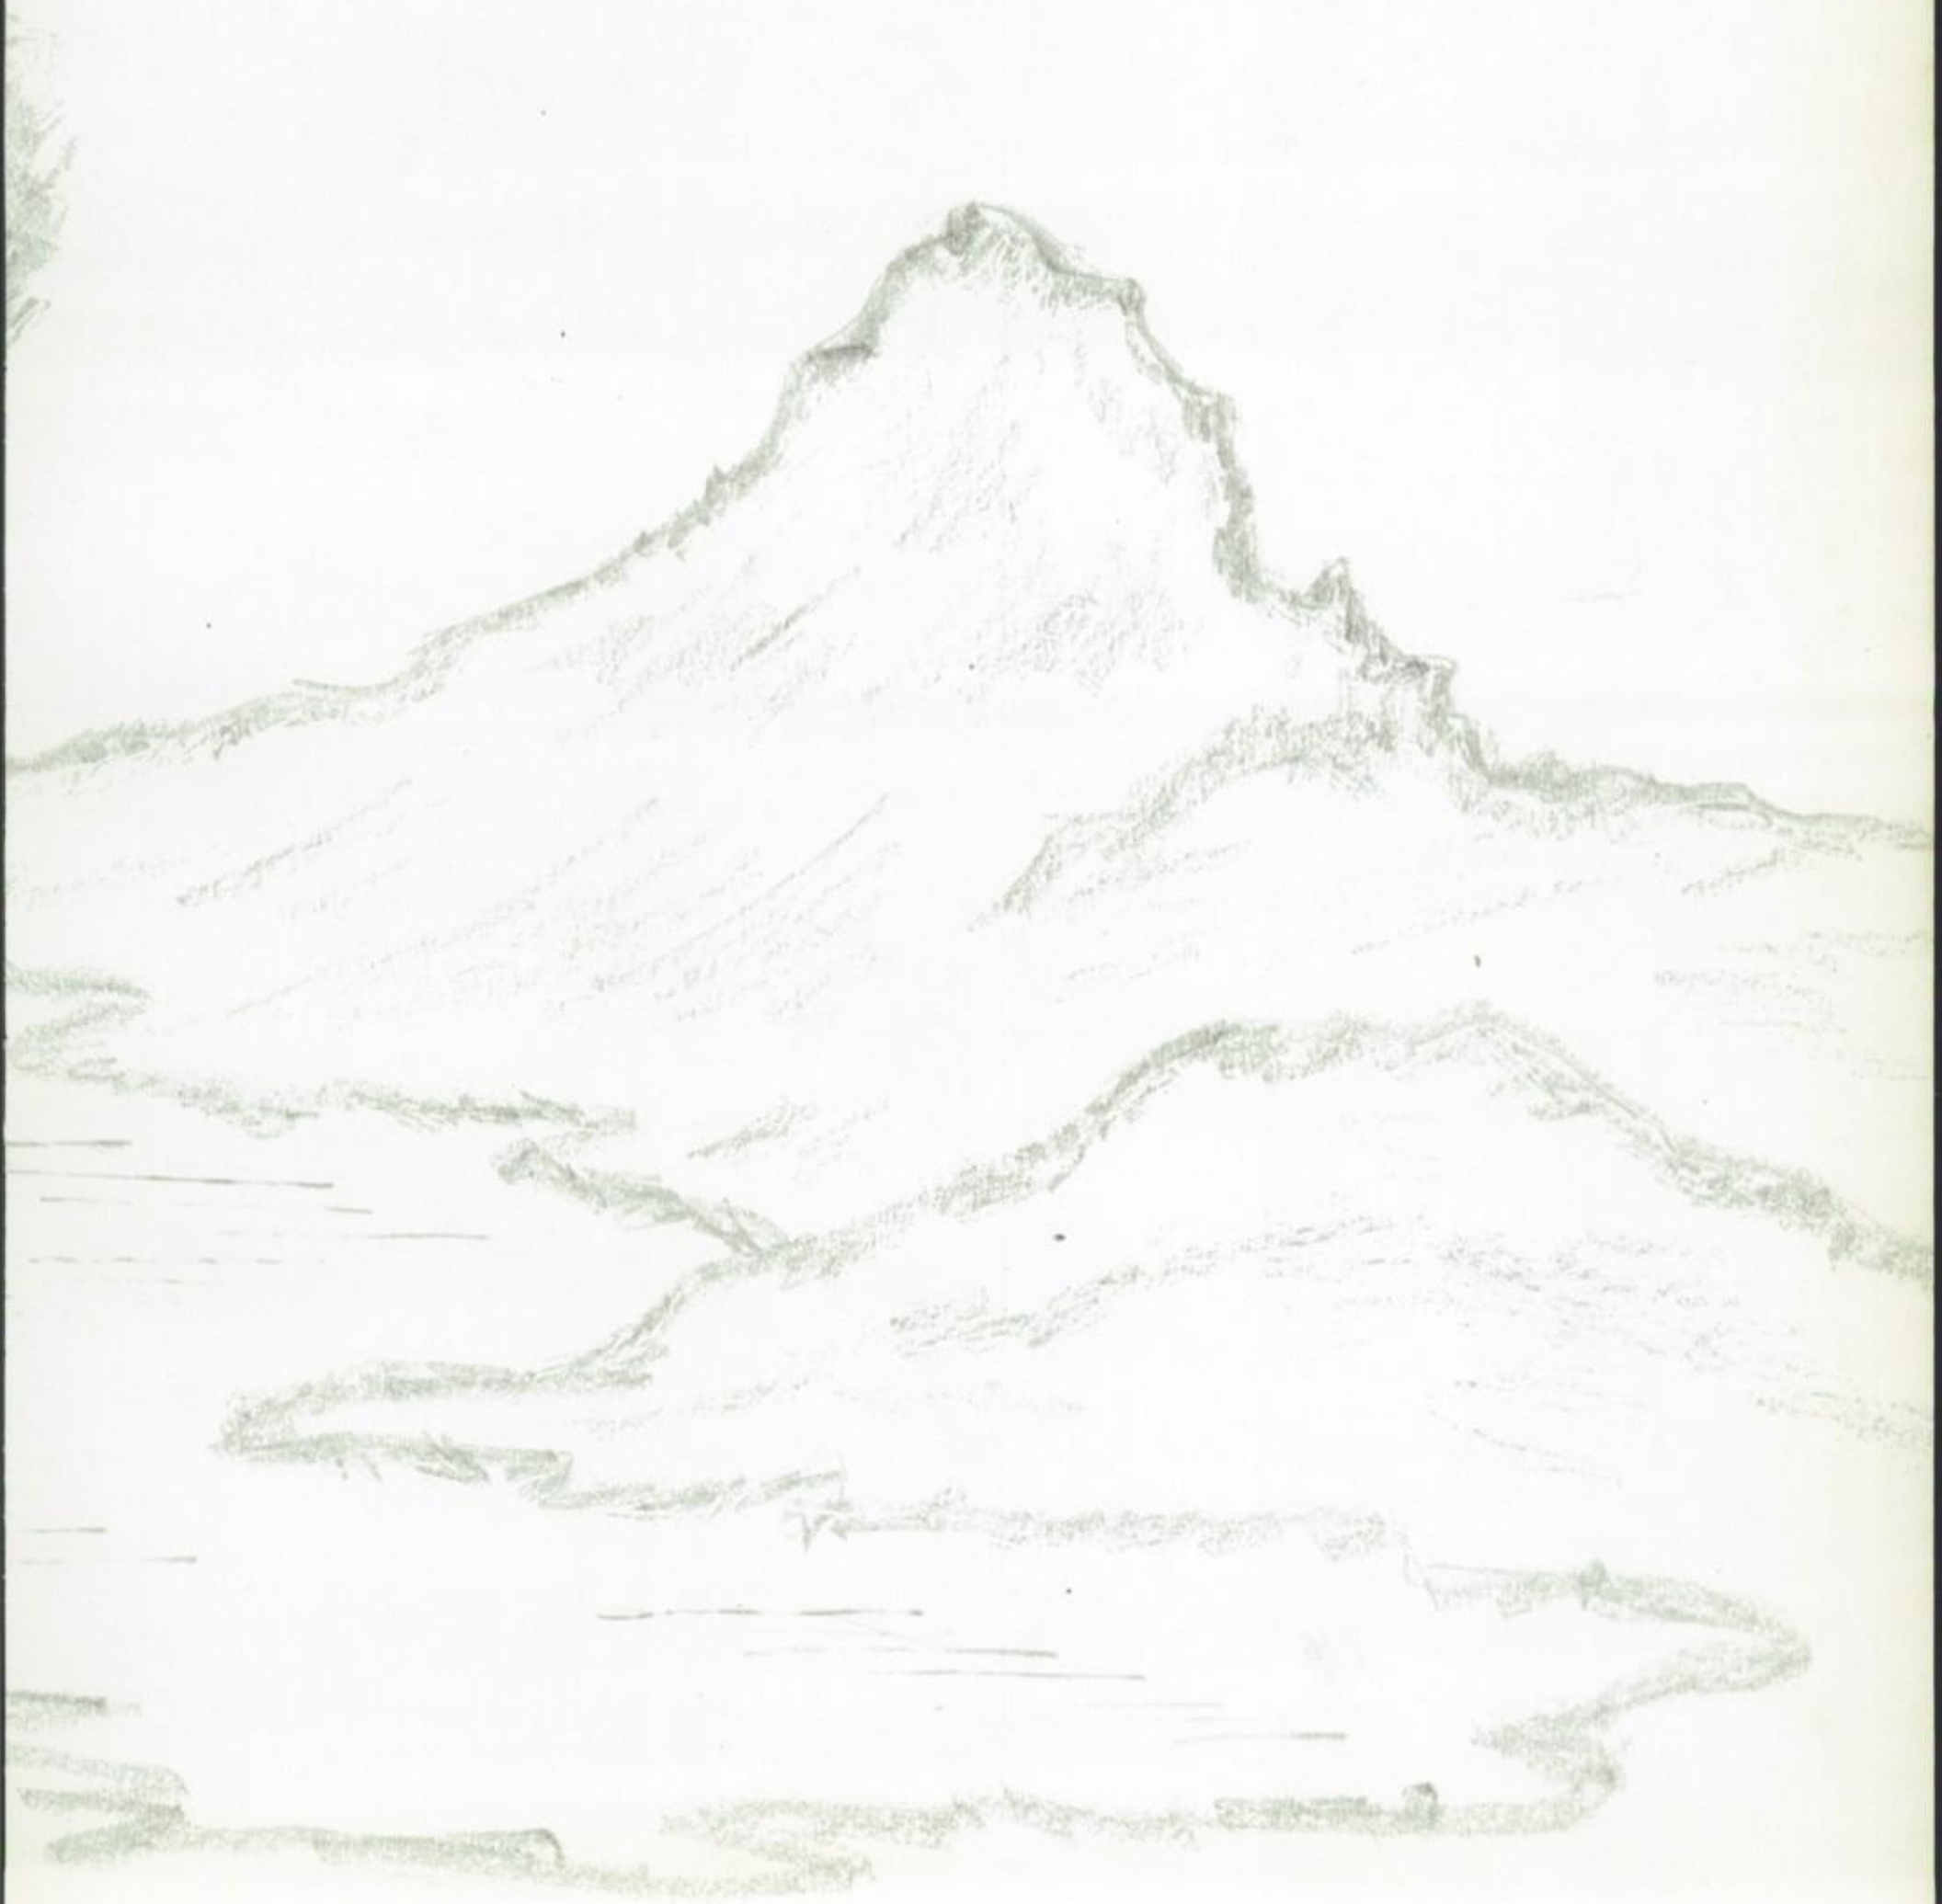
HOURIAH '78

Academy of the Resurrection

Boston Post Road
Rye, New York



The Senior Class of 1978 would like to dedicate this book to each other, with the realization that it has been through each other and with each other that we have spent our most special moments, our most trying times, and our most important years of learning, all of which will, one day, help us to find that special somewhere for each of us.



A path . . .
Amidst a maze of paths,
Yet alone,
Traveled by one.
Paths leading in the same direction,
Yet possessing separate destinations.

This is a real study hall?

Sleeping on the job!

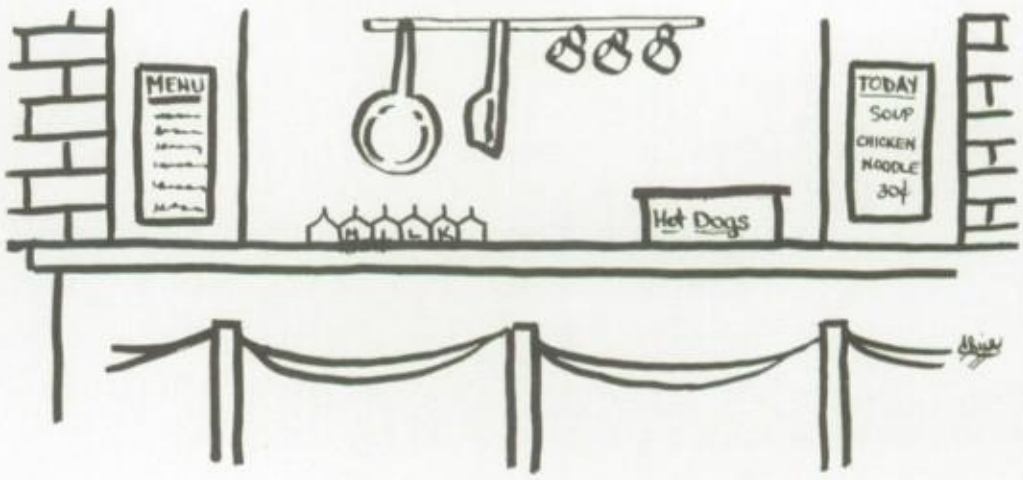
If it falls, we're in trouble!

Who's got a car?

A tree . . .
Growing within the forest,
Yet solitary,
Growing alone.
Trees reaching up,
Yet realizing unique heights.

Step into my office.

We're just a couple of crazy, swinging gals.



A dawn . . .
Bursting forth to all,
Yet to one,
Illuminating.
Giving the total light,
Yet lighting a single candle.

The secret dreams we held as children
Of what life would entrust to us
. . . Has taken root,
And the tree of our visions
Is reaching out . . .

Our deadline is tomorrow!

Don't you think we're a little too close to the office?

. . . Has been blazed,
And the path of our experience
Is being paved . . .
. . . Has dawned,
And the light of our knowledge
Shall carry us to . . .
somewhere.

Rexy's jet setters . . . aah! lunch on the Riviera.

More milk please!

Mr. Jose Mota, obrigado por todo o tempo que tem gasto e esforço que tem feito para tornar a nossa escola no que é

Though the path lay untraveled;
Though the tree has far to grow;
Though the dawn light often
blinds us;
We can dismiss all fears,
For we have been strengthened
With the power . . .

An apple a day . . .

. . . The power of friendship
The power of Love.
And no path be too winding,
No tree too bare,
No dawn too bright
That it can't be overcome by Love.

For Love conquers all . . .
It guides our journey,
It nourishes our growth,
It softens the glare,
And ultimately, brings us to

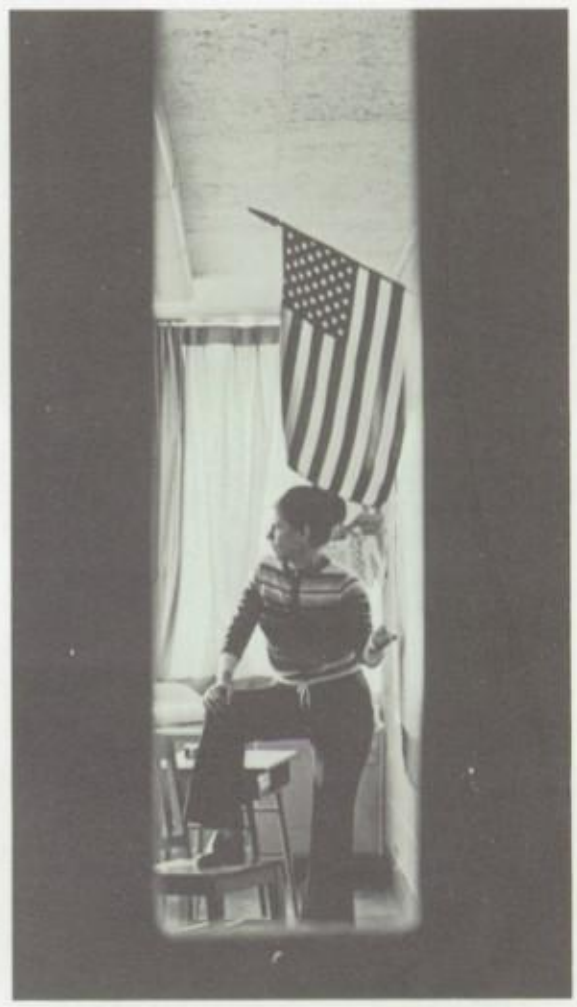
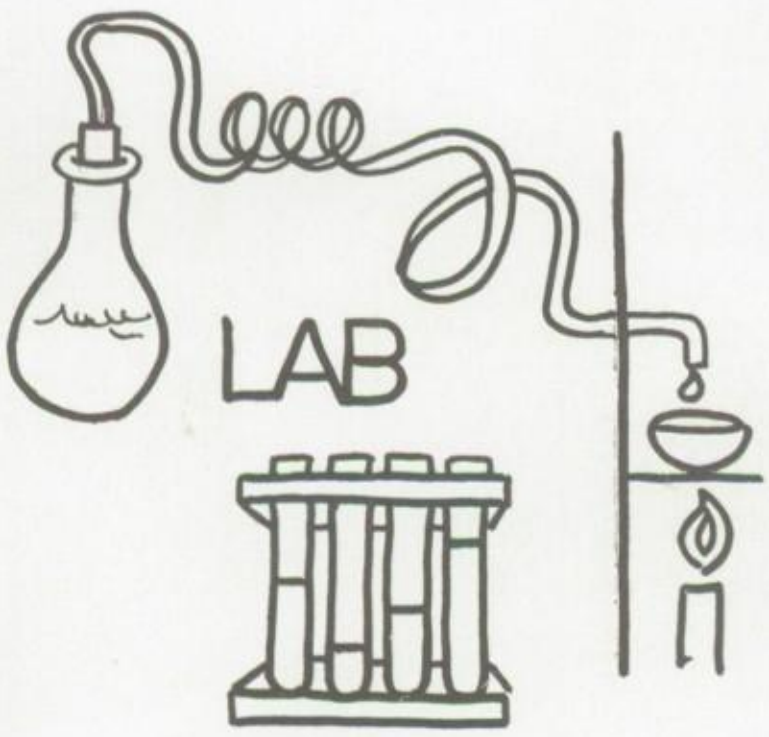
. . . Somewhere.





Traveling incognito.

Faculty

Throughout our lives,
we will encounter those who will help us
to listen, to understand,
and to grow;
Those who will give us the strength to reach for the sun and find our place . . .

. . . somewhere

Youth is the state of being in which, regardless of age,
we are young enough at heart to dream of where we are and wise enough to see visions of where we can be.

Activities

Only through involvement with others, do we experience;
Only through moving together, do we attain full motion.
Any talent is only as good as the number of people it touches;
The glory of sharing our joys with others
Is only a glimpse of the glory we attain . . .

. . . somewhere.

What is a STUDENT COUNCIL? To that perplexing question there remains but one answer. A Student Council is a concerned group of girls who represents you — the student body. This year, Resurrection's Student Council has attempted to fulfill its roll as the voice of the students. We have sponsored movies, dances, and a talkathon for the benefit of all. Hopefully, these events have helped to encourage a greater school spirit which will continue to grow with each future Council.

Helen Mannix

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is an organization which recognizes those outstanding students who have taken great pride in the development of their unique personalities. Membership in the society is based on a standard of excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The continual struggle for improvement and the need for a greater understanding among people are important goals which are of prime concern for all the members.
Rosemary Nogueira

Moderator: Sister Virginia. President: Rosemary Nogueira, Vice-President: Lisa Cahill, Secretary: Susanne Lawler, Treasurer: Mary Fitzgerald.

Moderator: Mrs. Gurtler. President: Rosemary Nogueira, Vice-President: Theresa Mahon, Treasurer: Susan Tesoro.

The SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY is a group of national distinction. It is sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. To be a member, a student must maintain an average of 90 in Spanish for two years. This Society places much emphasis on Latin customs as well as encourages the study of the language. The initiation dinner which takes place in a Spanish restaurant is the highlight of the year for those who are a part of this organization.

Our school newspaper, the SETONIAN, has had a difficult time in recent years. But this did not hamper the great creativity shown by the students. The paper has provided a great outlet for all those who enjoy writing or artwork. While developing their talents, they are also relating pertinent school events to all their classmates.

Coleen Hurlie

Moderator: Mrs. Norelli. President: Kathie Clifford, Vice-President: Liz Carty, Secretary: Lisa Dragani, Treasurer: Susanne Lawler.

The FORENSIC TEAM is one of the most exciting in the school and it is definitely a successful one. At each contest, a team trophy has been brought home, as well as quite a few individual trophies. All this winning is a result of hard work and practice, memorizing and preparing. We always know when a contest is near, by the girls in the empty classrooms talking to themselves.

Lisa Dragani

Have you ever wondered who created Toyland? . . . Santa? No, guess again.

The answer is the girls of Rexy's STAGE CREW. In the past they have built this and many other scenes to serve as back drops for the annual Christmas and Spring Shows which are put on by our own Dance and Glee Clubs.

So, the next time you hear the orders "Lights, Camera, Action!" —just remember Stage Crew . . . and see the magic of their "Hidden" talents unfold before your eyes.

The DANCE CLUB, which consists of both Tap and Ballet, worked hard to put on the production "Christmas Around the World." Since such a large turnout was expected, it was necessary to have two performances on Friday night. As a result of the time and cooperation given by each girl involved, we were able to have a most successful and enjoyable show.

Curtain up, light the lights! Yes, this is it: show time! The GLEE CLUB, and everyone else on stage and off, can feel the thrill of being included in the excitement. This year's Glee Club is truly amazing. The size has increased tenfold in three years. The talent? Well, the abundance of it is obvious to anyone who hears them.

Lisa Dragani

The ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB is one of the junior clubs of our school, and yet in its three year existence, has grown in popularity. Probably the pounding of the hammers onto metal to make jewelry has some sort of hypnotic effect on innocent bystanders below. However, you will seldom find anyone complaining of their indoctrination, but rather boasting of accomplishments such as macrame and tinsel painting, and rightly so.
Coleen Hurlie

Moderators: Mrs. Russell, Sr. Vincent, Sr. Marie Patrice. President: Joanne Jones.

The SERVICE CLUB'S main objectives are to offer service to the faculty and school in general. Its areas of activity include; supervision of the Learning Center, transporting audio-visual aids to and from classrooms, assisting Sr. Elaine in the Guidance Office, and helping teachers when in need of assistance. These activities truly enrich the student by offering a sense of responsibility and the reward of "service".

Carol Vecchiolla

Moderator: Mrs. Brooks.
President: Inga Grossman.

The LIBRARY CLUB is proud to announce its newest addition — a copy machine. A paper drive was held to defray the cost of the copier. With any additional funds, new resource materials will be purchased. Mrs. Brooks, our librarian, and the twenty-one students are always there to give their time and services to the rest of the school. The library has been used more this year than ever before due to the more individualized work by the students.

Lisa Cahill

Moderator: Mrs. Sullivan.
President: Maura Varian.

The PUBLICITY CLUB utilizes the talents of many students through the creation of posters and flyers which publicize different school activities and events. These advertisements enable the student body here, and at other area schools, to learn of the special happenings at Rexy.

Erin De Lorenzo

Moderator: Mrs. Sullivan.
President: Liz Carty.

The COMMITTEE CLUB is a club of service, in which the members help out in school activities such as dances, movie nights, car washes, and almost any other function that the Student Council sponsors. The success of many of these activities depends on the generous contribution of time that the members of Committee Club give.

Liz Carty

It's new! It's creative! It's the PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB! and it's developing into quite an experience. During the course of the year, we have taken pictures with the aid of our moderator, who instructs us in the different methods and uses of film. Some members put together a slide show accompanied by music for the Light Service during Christmas. The club also plans to put on additional presentations in the near future. This type of photography is very beneficial and rewarding.

Debbie Galle
Fran Cicco

Moderator: Sister Elaine. President: Teresa Mahon, Secretary: Maria Howell.

Moderator: Ms. Bavero.

The EXERCISE CLUB is basically one of the smaller groups which gathers in the school. By doing certain yoga exercises, the students are able to tone their muscles and increase the strength of their bodies. This club also teaches those who are interested in the many advantages of breathing exercises. A healthy body is certainly an important factor in leading an active life.

Rosemary Nogueira

Anyone in the school on Wednesday afternoons can smell a delicious aroma coming from downstairs. Each week the COOKING CLUB meets in the cafeteria to whip up some new creation. Some examples of their dishes are pizza, potato salad, chocolate chip cookies and lasagna. Sound good? Well, they were, as many "food snatchers" will agree.

Lisa Dragani

Moderator: Sr. Mary Ellen.

Moderator: Miss Cavanagh.

The SEWING CLUB'S main purpose is to aid in the making of costumes for the Christmas and Spring Shows. Their time and effort has been a valuable asset towards the success of the shows. During the year they learn new sewing techniques to help them sew for themselves. In addition to this they learn new stitches in needlepoint and crewel.

Susan Tirone

Moderator: Sister Virginia. President: Maura Varian.

The MISSION CLUB works hard every year to raise funds for the needy. Money is collected through certain activities such as raffles, bake sales and the selling of seniors as slaves for a day. All the money collected is sent to different missions abroad. Thanks to the generosity of faculty and students, the Mission Club has been most successful this year. Knowing that we have made an unselfish contribution to the needy should make everyone feel very proud.

Maura Varian

The Glory of God could not be imagined,
The visions of tomorrow could not exist,
The joys of Love could not be felt . . .

. . . if at first, there was no belief,
Only in believing, can we learn to see, open our hearts to Love,
And begin our search for somewhere.

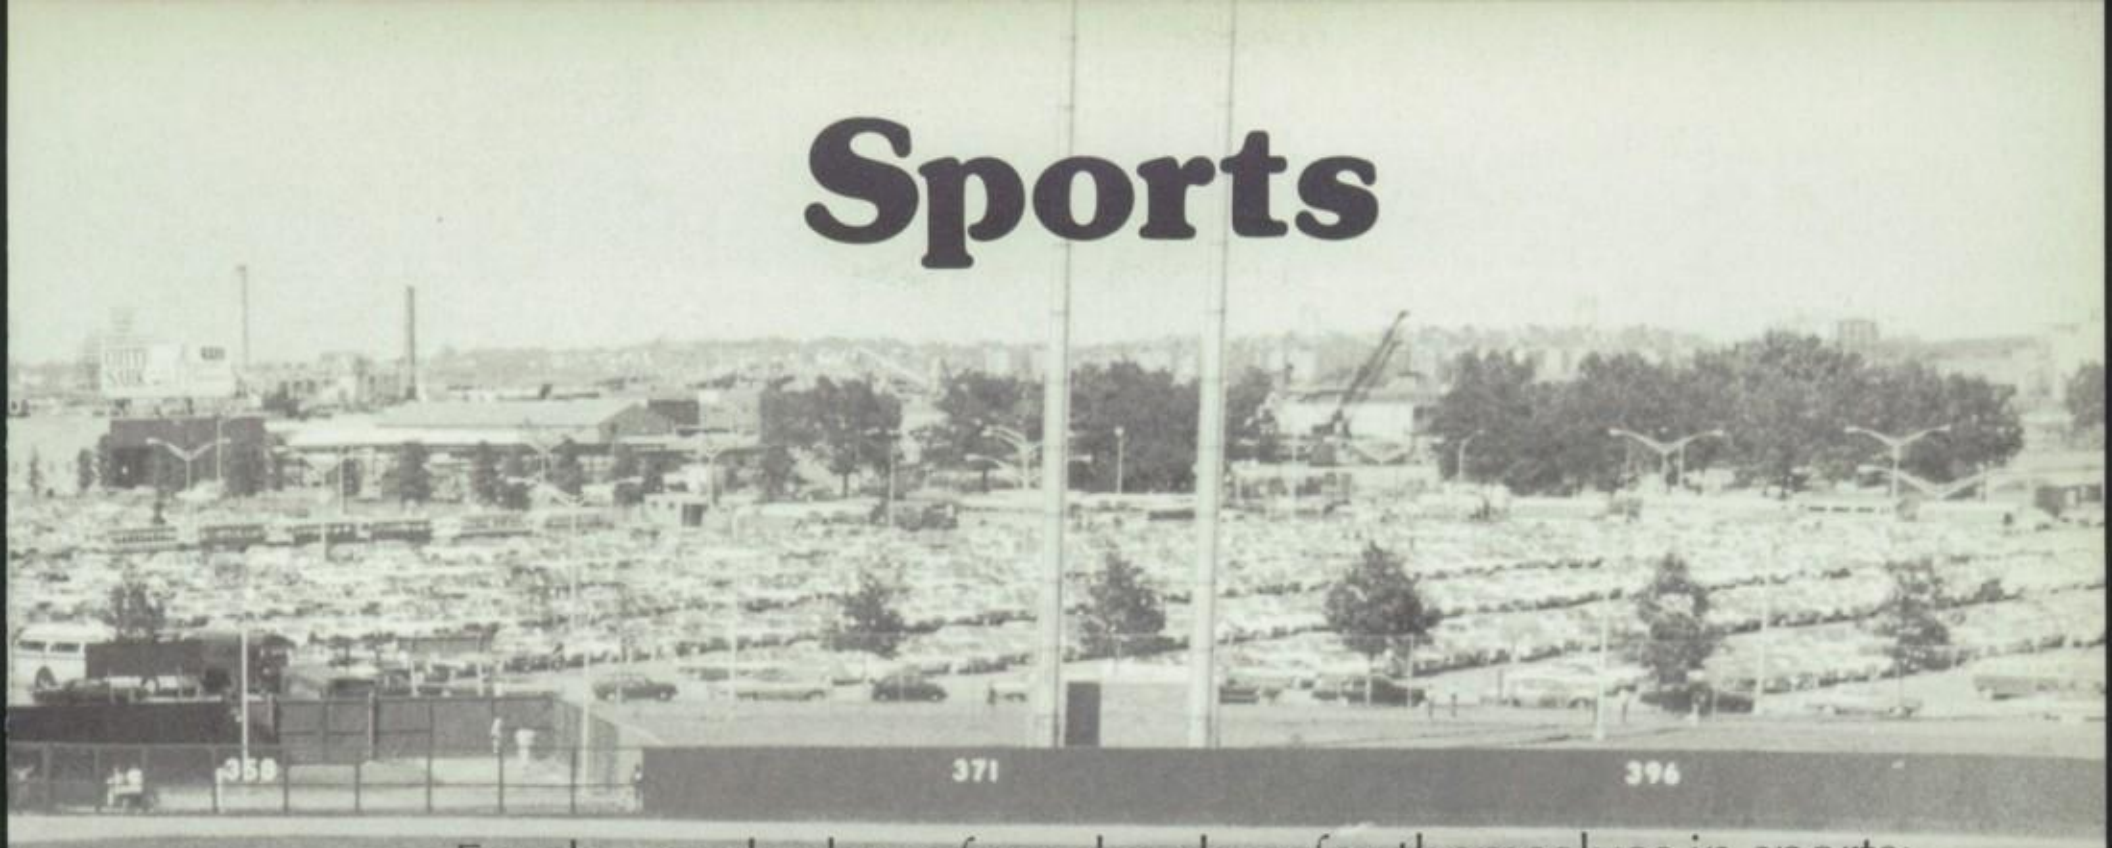
Sports



For those who have found a place for themselves in sports:
May you keep in mind the best of intentions,
The true spirit of competition,
Remembering always the value of your experience
In finding your somewhere.

The VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM had an interesting season this year. The team exhibited a tremendous amount of spirit and dedication. Their continual hard work proved to be at their advantage during the games. The excitement of the spectators during the games seemed to encourage the players throughout the season. All in all we had a good team and should be proud of it.
Patty Gherardi

Captains: Patty Gherardi, Jean Weber. Coach: Ms. Bogacki.

The JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM ran through the season with plenty of spirit. They should be an example to all for their good sportsmanship and dedication. They played each game with great enthusiasm as they attempted to overcome their competitors.

Patty Gherardi

Captains: Maureen Dolan, Laura Varca. Coach: Ms. Bogacki.

This year's VOLLEYBALL TEAM, Varsity Division, concluded its highly successful season with a second place finish in the New York State finals. The girls were also champions of the Westchester County Volleyball Tournament. The team compiled a record of only one loss throughout the season. Although the Junior Varsity had almost all new players and a new coach, their 6–4 record shows a great amount of talent. Both teams achieved their outstanding records through hard work, determination, and team spirit.

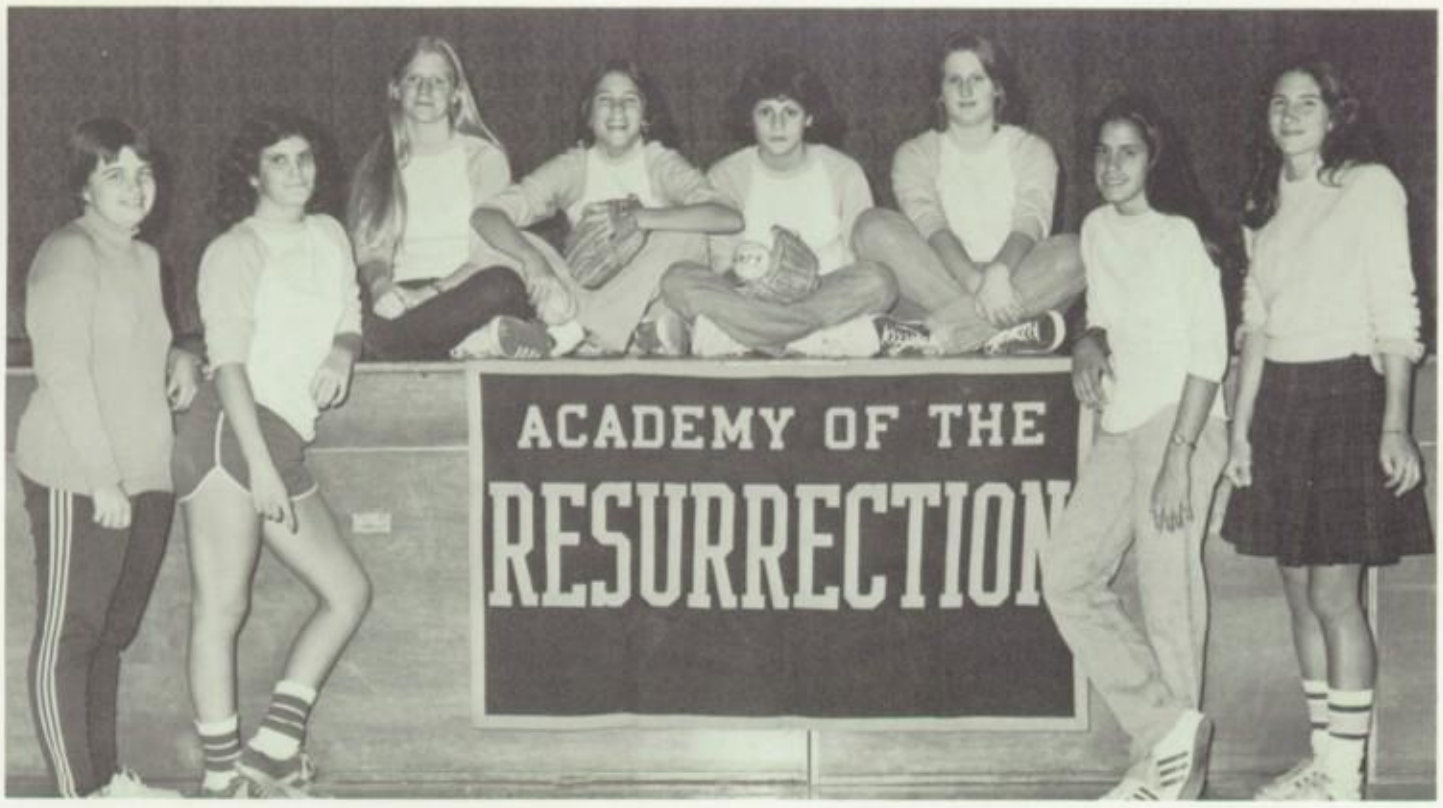
TENNIS was offered again this year as both a club and a team. During the winter season the team entered the Westchester County Private and Parochial School Tournament in singles competition. Recreational tennis was offered at the Rye Town Hilton. It was great exercise and fun for all who participated. With an increase in student involvement, tennis, both team and club, will become another one of Resurrection's strong and exciting sports.

Erin De Lorenzo



Moderator: Ms. Bogacki. Co-captains: Carol Schindo, Debbi Sorbella. 76–77

Last year's SOFTBALL TEAM, 76–77, found themselves placing 5th in the league with a 4–4 record at the season's end. This was quite an accomplishment for one of Resurrection's more obscure sports team. The 77–78 team showed great promise from their first game in April and has continued to do so throughout the season. Regardless of their anonymity, the softball team has remained a great asset to our school sports program.

Coleen Hurlie

Moderator: Ms. Bogacki.

The TRACK TEAM, 76–77, had a very successful season. They placed second in the Fieldstone Meet and first in the Resurrection-Holy Child-Ursuline Meet. They won a second place team trophy at the important County Meet in which six area schools participated. Their great success was a result of the long hours of practice, hard work and determination exerted by all the team members.

Erin De Lorenzo

This year a HORSEBACK RIDING CLUB was initiated by Resurrection in conjunction with the Boulder Brook Riding Stables in Scarsdale. The girls in the club pranced their way through their first ten lessons last fall. They showed enough horse sense and skill to be invited back for lessons again in the spring. During the spring lessons, the girls attempted such death defying feats as jumping fences. Who knows, with such talent we may be seeing an equestrian team next year.

Chris Boccini

Moderator: Sister Victoria.

Moderator: Ms. Bogacki.

The GOLF CLUB entered its second season last fall with a cry of FORE! Ten lessons were given at the Rye Golf Club under the instruction of Mr. Jim Corrigan, the club's pro. The girls learned all the basics of golf and with a little practice, some year we may even see a team sprouting out on the green.

Erin De Lorenzo

The CHEERLEADING TEAM consists of a group of hard working girls who help to add to the school's spirit. Last year their efforts were rewarded with a trophy from the County Center Contest. This year they will also attend the contest in the hope of having as much success. Cheerleading is a lot of fun as well as a lot of hard work!
Lisa Falzone

Moderators: Mrs. Coughlin, Miss LòVergine. Captains: Susanne Lawler, Lisa Falzone.

Moderator: Mrs. Coughlin. Co-captains: Patty Cavanaugh, Janit Britt.

Even though this is PEP CLUB'S first year, their support was tremendous. We became known as the rowdiest girls in the school. You could see us at all games wearing our bright yellow tee shirts and yelling at the top of our lungs! It is growing very quickly into one of the biggest clubs in the school.

Patty Cavanaugh

Seniors

Beginnings and ends are so much a part of our ever-changing lives.
This is an end . . .
Leading us to yet another beginning
That will carry us on our way to our very own somewhere.

The Class That Was

Once upon a time, a long time ago, 62 little freshmen entered into a strange new world called Rexy. Who knew how these scared little "kids" would turn out? There were new adventures to find and new people to meet, and they were a bit afraid. But there was no need to fear, for Big Sister was there. Yes, Big Sister saved the day for the little froshies by welcoming them into Rexy with a party — a Halloween party, in which they danced and pranced and joked their way into the freshmen's hearts. Later in the year, their inspiration helped the freshmen to capture second place in a field day cheer. This was just a preview of what was to come.

Once upon a year later, 54 sophomores strolled through the gates of Rexy, a little more sure of themselves than the year before. This time, it was their turn to entertain Big Sister at a Sophomore-Senior Supper. Naturally, it was a big success and the sophs began their history as entertainers. They had new adventures to look forward to, one of which they were to remember for evermore: the Soph Hop. And oh, what a hopping there was! Yet, it seems that the "after party" was just a bit hoppier. But their excitement was not short-lived, for they, the "more experienced" sophs, had a surprise for the rest of Rexy when they took first place in the field day events. That was the first time. It was not the last!

As the year passed, and a new fall . . . fell, 43 "very mature" Juniors dragged into the portals of Rexy, knowing full well what they were in for: work. They had had their fun and now it was time to get serious. Good luck! But to break up the monotony, there were quite a few diversions. First, there was a Junior Christmas Prom which was much more "elegant" and a little less hoppy than the Soph Hop. It was followed by a trip to Washington, D.C., a great "learning experience" to say the least. There, the girls amused themselves with a sock-judging contest on the White House lawn (they must have Hollywood in their blood) and a unique encounter with a group of fine V.M.I. boys . . . er, men. The climax of the year, though, was Ring Day, an occasion they would cherish forever. It was quite a ceremony, both spiritual and emotional. And now, there was Little Sister looking to them for inspiration. The Juniors initiated her into the land of Rexy with their own Halloween party and again provided entertainment. They also gave lessons to Little Sister on "How to Win Field Day" . . . again.

And now, it is the final year for these 41 girls at Rexy. (Notice the number has diminished a little?) Again, they proved to be a social success at the Senior Bridge, for now they are the Seniors. They are no longer children, afraid. They are adults, afraid — and with good reason, for they will be entering the "outside world", where they will start, anew, as freshmen. But before that, they will still have a few youthful pleasures to look forward to: A supper given to them by Little Sister; a trip to Florida; a Senior Prom, the last chance for partying as a group; Class Day, their farewell to the land of Rexy, and at last, Graduation, the final serious moments together, with each other.

If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me?
For I must be travelin' on now,
There's so many places I've got to see.
Cause I'm as free as a bird now,
And this bird will never change . . .

Time weaves ribbons of memories
To sweeten life when youth is through,
But I would need no memories there
If I could share my life with you.
from "Pippin"

And its only the giving
That makes you what you are.

And it goes on and on,
Watching the river run.
Further and further from things that we've done,
Leaving them one by one.

Blessed is he who has a friend,
For friendship is truly one of God's greatest gifts.

To those who shared, cared, and were always there;
To friends I love — never stray,
The past is gone away,
The present isn't here to stay,
The future that holds your dreams is on its way.

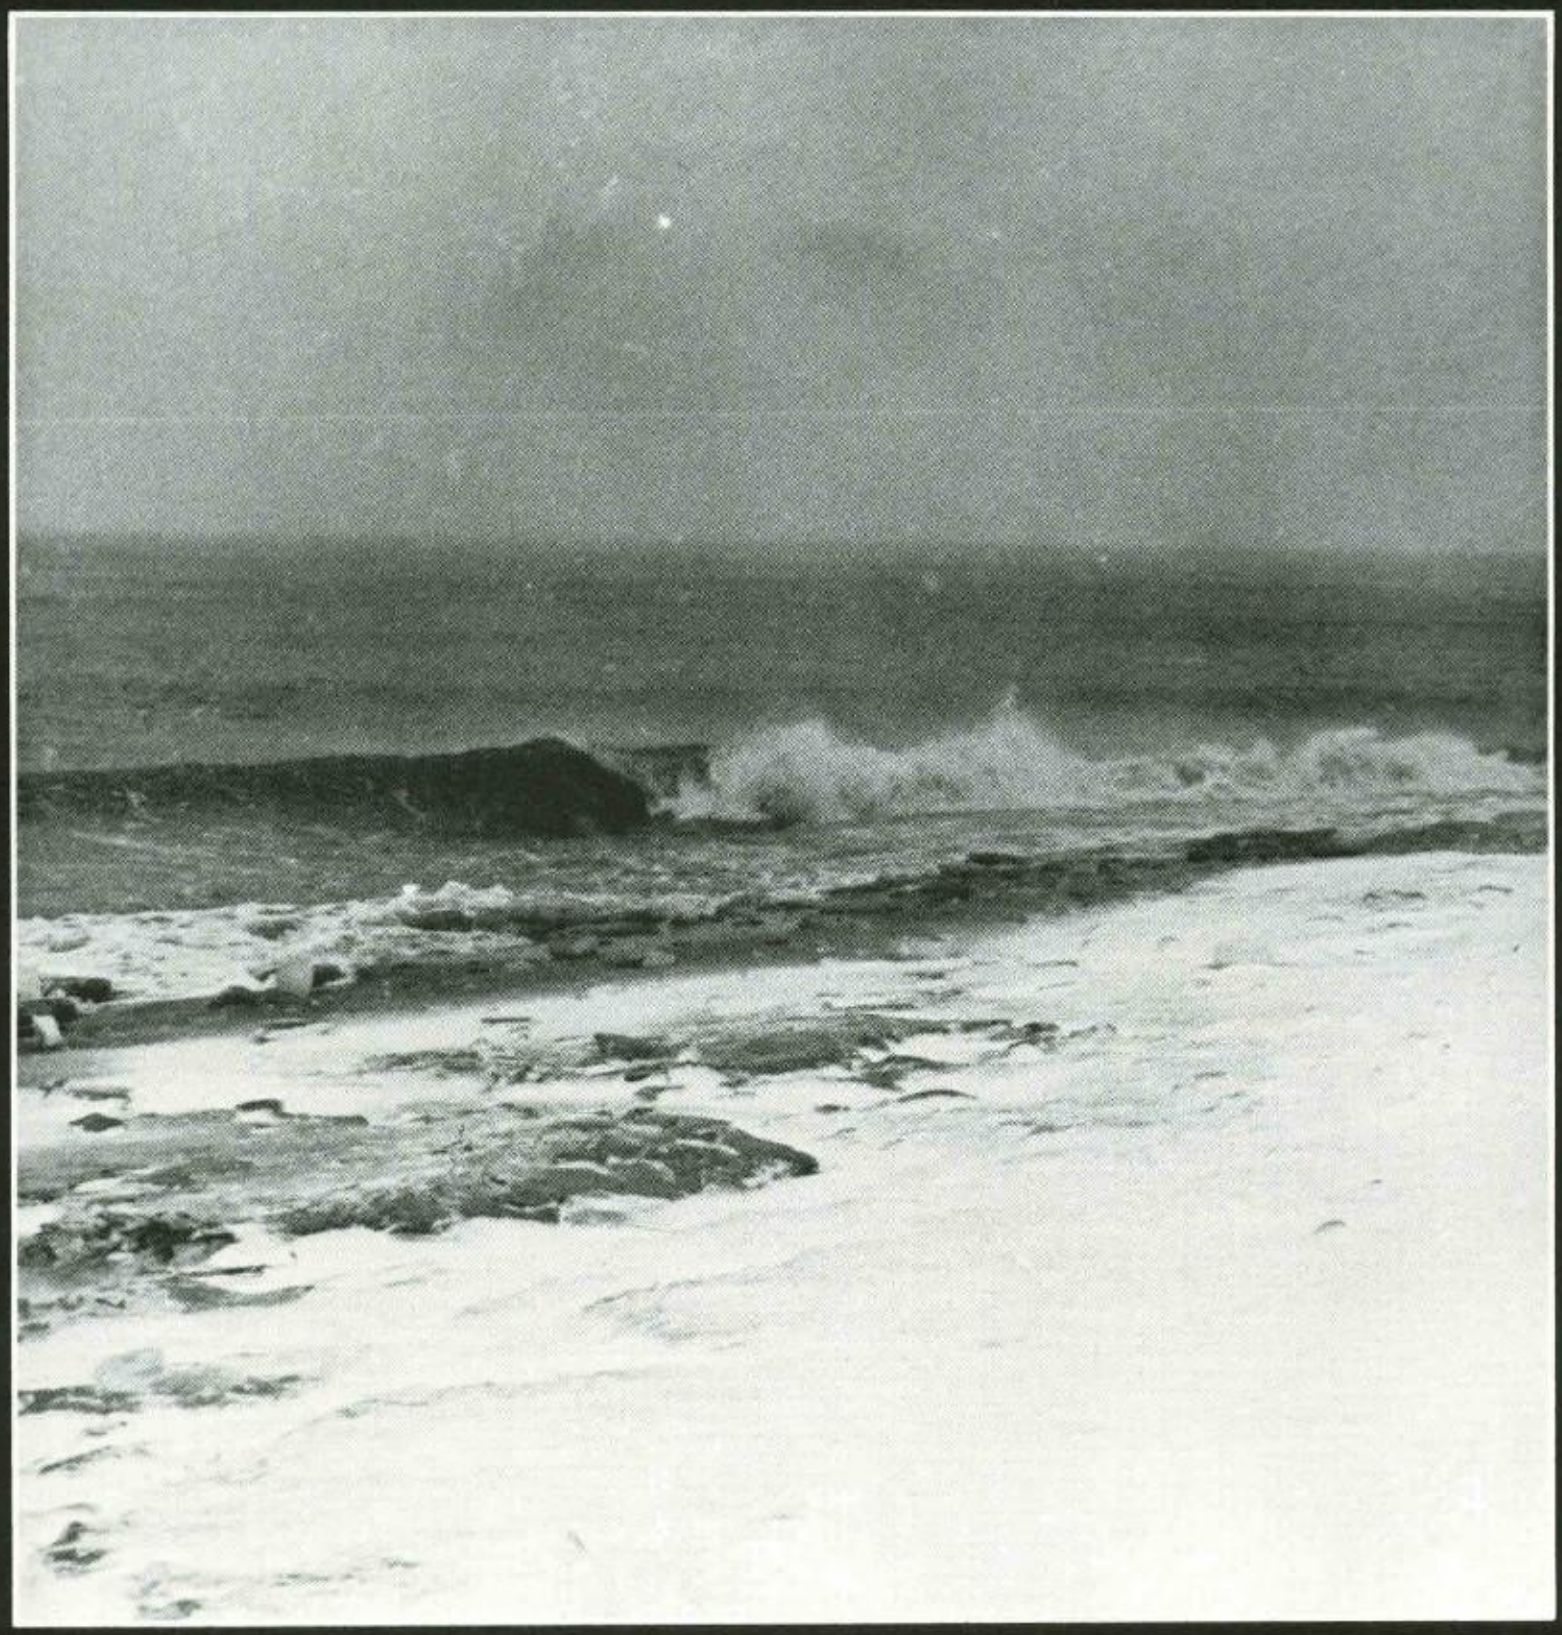
Nothing is more simple than greatness;
Indeed, to be simple is to be great.
Ralph Waldo Emerson

Carol Vecchiolla



There's a place for us
somewhere in the horizon.
There's a place for us
where we can discover ourselves
in a land of our own:
a very special place
of laughter and tears,
of memories and heartbreaks,
of dreams and goals;
a place of quiet and silence,
mountain streams and beaches
shadowed with life's noise and confusion.
This is a place where we can be free
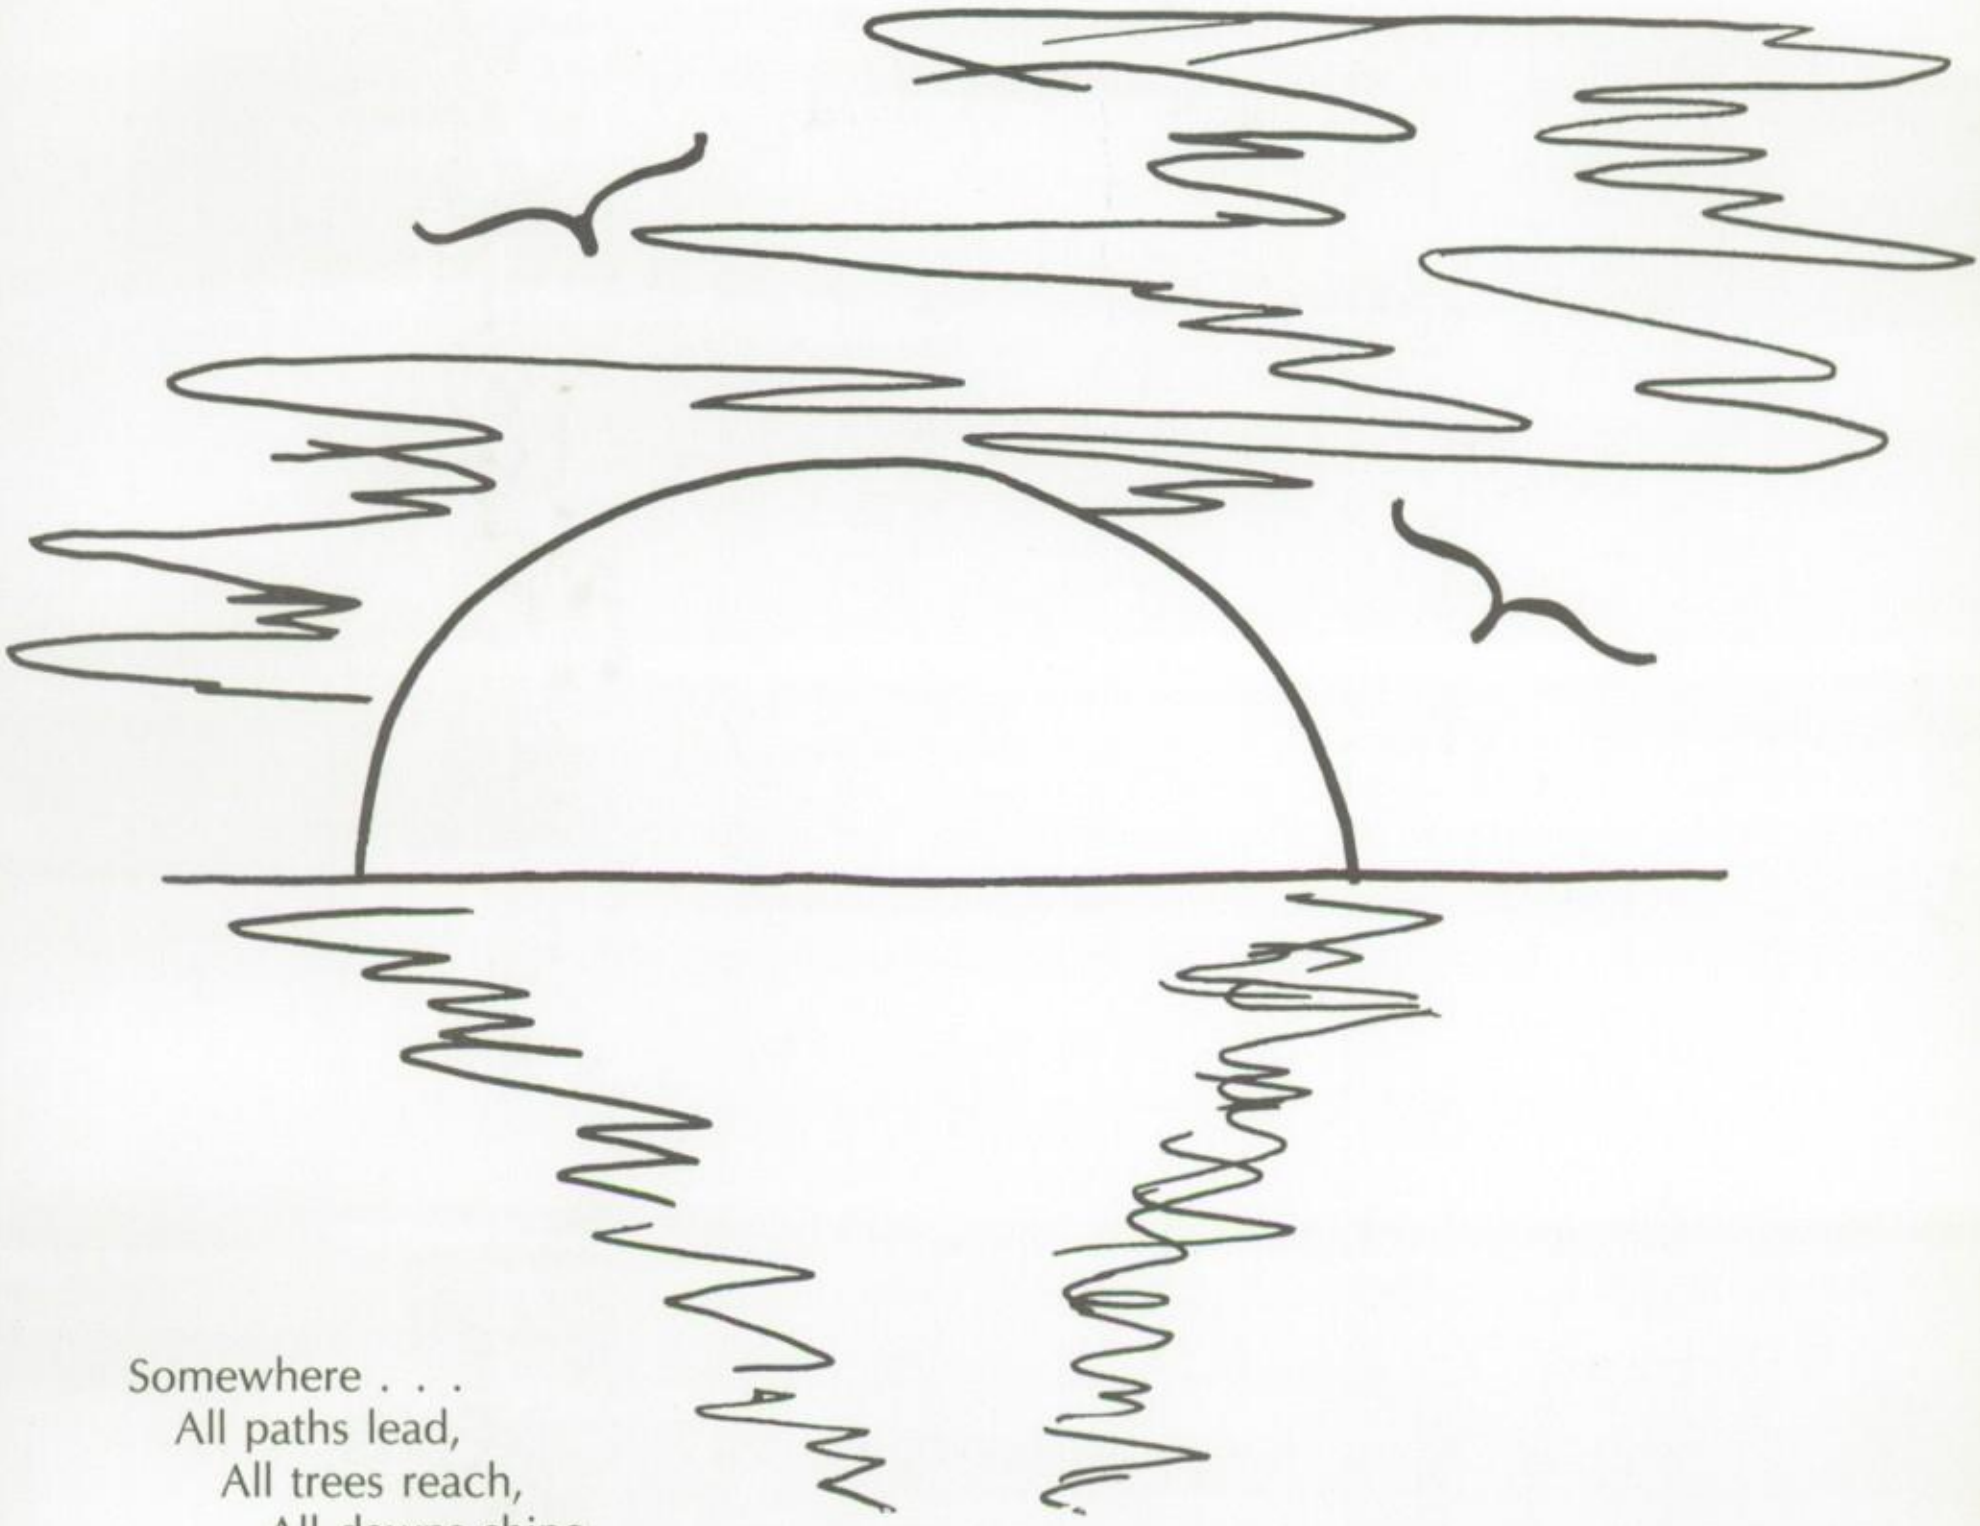
to question life and realize dreams.
Yes, there is a place for us . . .
somewhere.

Erin DeLorenzo



Somewhere . . .
All paths lead,
All trees reach,
All dawns shine.
We come together, yet remain apart,
Growing in self-discovery and awareness.
Somewhere, a place to understand our realities,
Fulfill our potentials, realize our dreams . . .
. . . Somewhere.
